Hi, [redacted] – As we discussed earlier today, here is the “quick and dirty” outline that I prepared (on short notice) on which I would welcome your feedback. Note that the goal was to provide a general overview (sketch) of the structures without going into a lot of detail.

We also would welcome your ideas on how best to describe Italian environmental law which probably would be the focus of a separate (but related) document.

Many thanks, as always, for your help!

Best,
Anna
